

IN regards to the attempt to enforce only one national do not call registry: If a state has determined their citizens wish for a stronger law than the federal, I feel the state should eb allowed to enact the tighter standards that the citizens have expressed a desire for.